In one day last week six hundred hogs were shipped from this point.
It is time to announce your Holiday goods.
The inquisitive fellows are anxiously awaiting the coming of the skating season, to see how the "pull-back" will do on ice.
The educational address of Rev.
Dr. LANE, published on the first page, is well worthy of a careful reading.
On Wednesday of last week Messrs. J. M. KERR and Co. shipped one hundred and fifty fine hogs.
One of them weighed 635 lbs.
Mr. Jos. Drouillard, Jr., and sister, arrived safely at Jacksonville, Florida, on Friday.
Mr. JOHN R. SMITH and Lady are in the city visiting relatives and friends.
REMEMBER the Festival in behalf of the Colored Band, Dec. 24th and 25th, at A. M. E. Church.
SHERIFF RIPLEY safely housed BILL BLANKENSHIP, JNO. SMITH, BOB VINNY and FRED. HOLMES in the Penitentiary Friday last.
Capt. HALLIDAY and Clerk Norton sold their interest in the steamer Ohio No. 4, at Cincinnati, one day last week, to the Big Sandy Packet Co., for $12,000. It is said that Capt. H. will build a boat for the Southern trade.
SCHOOL COMMISSIONER SMART is preparing to have the educational interests of Ohio well represented at the Centennial Exposition. The State Board of Centennial Managers had a satisfactory interview with the Commissioner on Thursday.
The funeral obsequies of the late JAMES BROWN, occurred on Thursday, and were largely attended.
The religious services were conducted by Rev. Mr. BATTLE, after which the remains were taken in charge by the Masonic fraternity, of which Order the deceased was a worthy member, and buried in conformity to their peculiar rites and ceremonies. The Point Pleasant Lodge honored the memory of the deceased brother by an attendance of some twenty members.
We are progressing; we have "Court Street Varieties," the "Grand Opening" took place Sat-day night.
THE Cincinnati Gazette says Capt.
A. M. HALLIDAY will leave for Florida about the 1st of January, to look at St. John's River, with a view to building a steamer adapted to that stream.
Mr. A. A. STEWART, of Cincinnati, son of R. L. STEWART, Esq., of this city, represented old JOHN RO-BINSON at the great sale in New York, of the effects of HARRISON's celebrated Hippodrome. Mr. S. bought for Mr.
ROBINSON some of the trained horses.
The next regular meeting of the Ministerial and Laymen's Association, Gallipolis Circuit, will meet at Western Chapel, in Springfield township, Saturday, Dec. 11th, at 9 o'clock A. M. Bring your lunch with you.
GALLIA Grange celebrated its anniversary last Saturday, at its new Hall, in Green township. There was a good dinner, and speeches by Dr.
W. W. MILLS, Hon. E. A. STONE, and essays read by R. D. NEAL, W. T.
BUCKLE and Mrs. HENRY BLAZER.
EXOS K. JONES, well known in this city, has secured a ticket for the Kentucky penitentiary by stealing at Maysville.
Mr. JNO. K. POWELL, formerly of this county, is now teaching the High School at Victoria, Ill.

For the Gallipolis Journal.
Cheshire Items.
Plenty of rain and mud.
Henry's whippers are visible.
Amos has a beautiful (2) mustache.
That "Cheshire Cheese" was good.
I. N. Mauck left for Cincinnati last Saturday with about 70 head of hogs.
William Symmes, Esq., has sold his storehouse and goods to Messrs Sandford & Maddy.
Rev. Dixon is now, for the second time, a resident of our town. We extended a hearty welcome to all such men.
Rev. Chaffman closed his series of meetings last Wednesday evening. The Church has been revived and some six or eight professed faith as the result of his labors. He has made a host of warm friends here during the short time he has had charge of the church.
Richard Hackley, a colored man who has been in the employ of R. Coleman for the past seven years, died last Monday after a short illness of only twenty-six hours. His disease was apoplexy.

The quarterly meeting at First Ky-Church was very well attended.
Prof. Dunn of Hillsdale, Mich., preached Sabbath morning and evening.
The new coo-per-shop is in full blast, and has about twenty-five hands employed.
They are having war again out at First Ky; the first battle was fought about two weeks ago, and the participants were all young men. Peace pre-valled from that time until Friday evening, when a more severe battle was fought. If we are correctly informed some young men possessed of Satan and were of too much of a head in their shirts, attended church on the evening above mentioned for the sole purpose of creating a disturbance, and were quite successful. Mr. Davis, the Counsellor in attempting to make peace had a pair of brass knuckles planted in his face, and then a general battle took place. Such a disturbance is a disgrace to that church which would be a disgrace to an uneducated nation. It is too bad that the church members can't put a stop to it.
Some people are beyond all parties, but we all know, and doubt that, those people that go there to worship will disturb no one if they will go and behave as gentlemen. Reform, boys, and you will be happier.

ALPHA.
For the Gallipolis Journal.
Centerville Items.
Centerville though small, is not by any means an insignificant, dull, lonesome town that many imagine it to be.
It is true, we are not blessed with a Railroad or river, but we fare equally as well, if not better, than a majority of the towns near us, that have these advantages.
We have four churches—Welsh Baptist, Calvinistic Methodist, Congregational and an English M. E.
Church. I think these four churches average as large an attendance as the churches of Gallipolis, not that we have more people but less "Sunday loafers".
We have also four secret orders, viz: Masonic, Knights of Pythias, Red Men and Odd Fellows; all of which are progressing finely.
Centerville, we claim, ships more butter and eggs, and packs more hogs than any town in the county.
Centerville Lodge of A. F. & A.
M., No. 371, are going to have a public installation and supper St. John's evening, Dec. 27th, which no doubt will prove a success.
Centerville has turned out the following teachers this fall, who by not only are an honor to Centerville, but a credit to the counties of Gallia and Jackson: viz: L. C. Steele, S. S. Jones, D.
L. Morgan, Wm. H. McNeal, L.
Hathaway, Misses Lillie Williams, Eliza Waddell, Annie Waddell, Mary Morgan and Mary Thomas.
The Centerville Base Ball club played a match game last Saturday.
Score—1st nine, nineteen, (19); 2d nine, eighteen, (18). I don't think can beat the Boston Red Sox yet; "though they are not to be grined at."
By next spring, perhaps they will give the Pastimes a "rub".
I understand Mr. J. Warren Yost has resigned the management of the Centerville National Bank of Thurman, and intends to return to Gallipolis. Centerville and community deeply regret the loss of one of its best citizens. Mr. Yost is a young man of fine intellect and excellent deportment, in fact a model young man. He leaves Centerville with not an enemy and a host of friends. May peace and prosperity go with him.
"Square Hartsook fined three lads the other day for stealing three chickens, cost and all, over eighteen dollars each. Dear chickens! Boys, look out for hen-roosts."

For the Gallipolis Journal.
Addition Items.
Roads getting muddy.
Gathering corn about completed; yield good.
Schools all in blast. Teachers' wages range from $30 to $35 for male, and $25 for female, per month.
Polar breeze the force part of last week brought mercury down to 18 degrees above zero; raining now.
Thanksgiving was observed as a holiday; more than usual.
Trading for cattle in the Virginia mountains by Ohioans must be a brisk, judging from the number passing.
At the Farmers' Club, Saturday evening, measures were taken to hold a meeting next Saturday night, by all interested, to get up a Christmas dinner and tree Christmas Eve in Addition.
Mr. S. H. Gates has put up an addition to his already commodious barn, for the benefit of his bovines.
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fulton returned Saturday morning, from a six week's visit to friends and relatives in Kansas and Missouri. They report a pleasant trip and a fine country.
Mr. C. F. Fern has completed the stone fill at upper end of Campaign bridge.
Mr. Jas. Logue arrived Sunday morning on a visit to his numerous relatives and friends, after an absence of fifteen years or upwards.
Mr. D. R. S. Shaffer shipped quite a lot of dressed poultry to Philadelphia last week; chickens that averaged over six pounds dressed are hard to beat; we were informed his own raising did. He has some fine birds.
M. S. Giles has finished the fill at the west end of Big Kyger bridge, and has left the scenes of his summer's campaign and gone into winter quarters, within the peaceful borders of Rio Grande, to regain his lost energies. A speedy recovery we wish thee. But this brings to the bridge again: For the benefit of the inhabitants of Gallia county, and all others interested, I hereby issue my proclamation, on the first day of Dec.

Anno Domini, 1875, the bridge across Big Kyger, about the hour of four o'clock P. M., was made ready for travel, and that at that time, teams did cross said bridge, although said structure is yet uncompleted; but it has passed into other hands for completion, and we hope to be able, long before the Centennial meeting in Philadelphia, 1876, to announce to the world its full completion. But never do we expect to be able to learn all who have suffered losses caused by its erection. We defer further comment until the fog raises.
BLIX.

For the Gallipolis Journal.
LETART, MEIGS COUNTY, OHIO.
Dec. 3, 1875.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Believing that Gallia is interested in her sons who have stepped over her borders and are battling with the "ills of life" in other counties, I desire to speak of two who have gone out as educators, and are now faithfully laboring in Meigs county.
Charles E. Coates has been teaching in this county for the last few years. His success in the common schools won for him quite a reputation as a teacher, so much so that he received a call from the trustees of the Carleton College, at Syracuse; and to-day, he stands at the helm of that institution. So successfully has he steered this periodical, that many are placing themselves under his watchful care. He truly has shown himself a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." The hopes of the trustees have been realized. The patronage of the institution is increasing.
O. M. Carter is meeting with success in this place. He has proven to the patrons of his school that he is well qualified for the position he occupies. It is both pleasant and instructive to visit his school. He has won the affections of his students, and all, both teachers and students, are working with "might and main".
The school building is a beautiful structure, erected and furnished last year at a cost of something over seven thousand dollars. There are three departments at present. Mr.
Carter superintends the whole, and teaches the High School.
If these two young men are fair specimens of the instructors that Gallia has sent out, she may well be proud of her sons who are engaged in this occupation beyond her borders.
The JOURNAL is a welcome visitor.
We could not well do without it.

County Commissioners.
This body met in regular session Monday. Present—H. C. NIDAY, L.
M. BEMAN and JOHN E. MILLS. Mr.
NIDAY was elected President of the Board.
In the matter of the road petition of J. A. Martindale and others, the following viewers were appointed:— Geo. W. Smith, Ursabous McKean and Wm. Clark. Meet Jan. 7, 1876.
P. P. Parish and others petitioned for a road. Viewers—Hugh Ply-male, Wm. Kinder and John Brothers. Meet Dec. 30th.
For the county road petitioned for by R. M. Rodgers and others, the following viewers were appointed:—J.
N. Kerr, Jas. Cherington and David Hutspinlar. Meet Dec. 29th.

The Pomeroy, Big Sandy and Cincinnati Packet Company have gobbled up the Ohio, and now control all of our Cincinnati packets except those running to Wheeling. This company seem to have a desire to monopolize the carrying trade between Cincinnati and Pomeroy. If it deals honorably and fairly with the people perhaps there will be no serious protest, but if it attempts to oppress shippers and travel by the power it has secured it will be a bad day for the company. We have still two good packets running outside of the monopoly, Andes and Hudson, and these should be liberally supported, that they may maintain their independent position, and thus keep open competition.

SOME four or five years ago, Messrs.
JAMES MULLENBACH, ROBERT BLACK and JAMES BROWN were appointed Commissioners to divide the FERRARD estate. Now, two of the parties are dead, and they the youngest members of the Commission. The elder, Mr.
MULLENBACH, remains an active and useful citizen. Such is life.

CAPTAIN REYNOLDS, of the Julia No. 2, has contracted with Cincinnati parties for a new steamer. Length 180 feet, beam 35 feet. To be completed by the first day of May next.
She is designed for the Kanawha and Cincinnati trade.

The two colored men, MAT. BROWN and JOHN CLARK, and another whose name we did not learn, who heat HARVEY MORGAN, another colored man, out on the farm of Mr. LEOPOLD FRANK, two weeks since, were arrested on Saturday, and on Monday were brought before Esquire LOUGHE.
The prosecuting witness not appearing, CLARK plead guilty of an assault, and was fined $2 and costs, while the other two were discharged.

Mr. H. P. ELIAS, of the old established, Queensware Store, has been filling up with new goods the past week, and now can show the best stock in the city. Come and see.

Bonds Accepted.
The official bonds of Mr. CHARLES STUART, Sheriff elect, Judge KENT, Probate Judge elect, and Recorder BOOTH elect, were accepted by the Commissioners on Tuesday.

The Mission Sunday School started off last Sunday, with an attendance of between 67 and 70 pupils.

HENRY ALEXANDER, whose arrest on the charge of implication in the burglary of CANADY's meat shop we stated last week, had an examination before Esquire VANCE on Thursday, and was discharged. The evidence was insufficient to make a case.

We had a call, Thursday, from Major N. H. HOTCHKISS, the indefatigable agent of the C. & O. R. R. We were right glad to see his genial countenance.

Sickness prevails everywhere, and to get well; now we say plainly that no person in this world that is suffering with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Depressed Spirits & Illnesses, &c., can
